Problem 15. A rectangular grid of squares measures $2013 \times 2013$. This grid contains many sub rectangles made from some of these squares, each with sides parallel to the sides of the grid. Find the total of the areas of all of these rectangles. (Note: the entire grid also counts as one of these rectangles.)