Problem 1. Let \( r \) be a positive rational number. Prove that there are only finitely many ordered pairs \((m, n)\) of positive integers with

\[
\frac{1}{m} + \frac{1}{n} = r.
\]